Regain Citizenship by Naturalization

LOS ANGELES. — In the first case of its kind here, five U.S. Nisei who served in the Imperial Japanese army during World War II recently regained their United States citizenship through naturalization procedures.

The men reinstated were Minoru Hamamoto, Tom Kimura, Tetsuya Nishimoto, Kazu Sagara and Norio Uniekita.

The procedure was through a special method permitted under the Immigration and Naturalization Law before the Walter-McCarran Act took effect on Dec. 24, 1952, and applied only to Nisei who fought in the Japanese army but who were residing in the United States before that date.

The five who had their citizenship restored had filed court suits through attorney A. L. Wirin and Fred Okrand. Said Wirin:

"The effect of the naturalization of the five is to restore to them the same status as American citizens as before. It is as though they had never been declared to have lost it."

As to those who had filed their court cases before Dec. 24, 1952, but were not yet in the United States, their cases will be processed through the courts.

Those who did not file their case before Dec. 24, 1952, and who are still in Japan, must process their cases under the provisions of the McCarran Act which allows a trial only after the person has first been permitted to re-enter the U.S. on a Certificate of Identity and has processed his case through the Immigration and Naturalization Service.

To Satisfy Your Curiosity

YOU KNOW, curiosity is a funny thing. According to my soiled and half-coverless Webster's, curiosity is defined thus: disposition to inquire into anything, inquisitiveness, etc., etc. Furthermore, I vaguely recall that it had something to do with killing a cat, although just what connection there exists between them is beyond my meagre comprehension.

Ofttimes, I have been made to understand that people — or to be more precise, readers, — are curious to know about the guy who writes these articles. Who is he? Where did he come from? What does he look like? and so on. Of course, I'd expect there are a lot of indifferent ones, too, whom I can hear saying: "G—— N—— —? Never heard of him? And for all I care, he could go jump in the lake!" Well, it takes all kinds to make up this world, y'know.

Anyway, this week, for want of a better subject on which to doodle, I'm going to lavishly expend my column in an attempt to cure that itch of yours. I regret, of course, that shortage of space does not permit the inclusion of my profile here — perhaps I'll leave that part to your own discretion.

OUT OF a conspiracy between Fate and Mother Nature, yours very truly took his first innocent whiff of the salty coastal air of Vancouver in the midst of the depression. (Ha, fooled you there!) Ah, Vancouver — its charms, its haunts, its five-cent shows. They bring back vague memories of a carefree childhood on Commercial Drive, spent commuting interminably between English school and Japanese school, Sunday school and Bible school . . . all in that small world within a world.

And then BOOM! Because some jokers suddenly get trigger-happy, comes the weary trek into the deep woods of B.C. New acquaintances replace old friends, and yours truly finds himself thrown together with a couple of thousand others in a tidy but forlorn community called Lemon Creek. Three years of time spent in dormancy rapidly flow by, and then another BOOM! BOOM! This time it's Hiroshima and Nagasaki. . . .

Shortly comes the crucial decision to be made. Whither now? East, or back west, or Japan? Lured by the offer of a free trans-Pacific cruise, the family packs up its scanty possessions that have collected almost four years of dust in the tar-papered house on Gilead Avenue, and joins the 1,370 passengers that cram themselves into the stiffling

Asia Visit is Main Purpose of PM's Tour

OTTAWA. — Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent disclosed last week that, although he goes first to Europe, the main purpose of his forthcoming world tour is to visit Asia.

Canada's future might well be greatly influenced by the decision now facing Europe, he said, presumably referring to the Berlin conference. But Canada was vitally concerned with what happened in Asia, St. Laurent declared.

The Prime Minister leaves here tomorrow, Feb. 4, by an RCAF plane. After visiting the main capitals of Europe and the Canadian troops there, he will fly to Pakistan. He will spend over three weeks in the Far East, flying home from Tokyo. He returns to Ottawa on Mar. 17.

Japan's New Envoy To Ottawa Named

TOKYO. — Pursuant to the recent announcement of the transfer of Ambassador Sadao Iguchi to Washington, the Japanese Government late last week named Koto Matsudaira to succeed Iguchi as Japan's new envoy to Canada, it has been reported.

A graduate of Tokyo University, Matsudaira, 50, has been a foreign office counsellor. His past diplomatic postings include France and Moscow.

Fells Superior Opponent to Cop Ottawa Judo Championship

By Staff Correspondent

OTTAWA. — Small but stocky LAC Mas Takahashi of the RCAF, a first-degree black belter, emerged victorious to cop the Japanese Embassy Trophy on Jan. 29 when he felled a second-degree black belter before a capacity crowd in the annual Ottawa and District Judo Championships tournament held at the YMCA here.

Avenging his loss of a few years ago, Takahashi effected a surprising upset in a bout which had a touch of the biblical story of David and Goliath. His opponent — awesomely bigger and seemingly stronger — was Bernard Gauthier, a second-degree judo instructor and head of the Kano Judo Club at Hull, Que.

In the Jan. 1952 tournament, Takahashi, then a brown belter, was beaten by Gauthier, who, at the time, possessed a first-degree black belt. But there existed in local judo circles a speculation as to who might be the stronger, the conclusion of which had been left hanging pretty much in the air.

So, last week, determined that he could not afford to lose in his own environs, Takahashi, who heads the Ottawa YMCA Judo Club, proceeded to eliminate a member of the Hull team, Raymond Rocque. The latter is a first-degree black belter who arrived from France last year.

Then arrived the crucial moment when the heads of the two rival clubs, Takahashi and Gauthier, were pitted against each other. The crowd became hushed, expectant.

Takahashi began to take defensive and offensive actions alternately. He made certain that the bout would not take place lying down on the canvas (ne-wazu), a position definitely advantageous to the heavier Gauthier. Seeking a break to make an offensive movement, Takahashi continued to weave, duck and feint.

As the two rivals kept shuffling back and forth, and sideways, Takahashi suddenly marshalled all his resources to try and effect a hip throw. But meeting resistance, he slipped some ankle kicks (ashi-harai) which made Gauthier fall unexpectedly. For this, Takahashi received half a point.

It was after a lapse of one minute and forty seconds of the bout that Takahashi, more confident then, quickly produced a leg throw called "o-soto-gake." This quick throw clinched a whole point for Takahashi.

Takahashi's squad also won the team match from the Quebec representatives with a score of three wins and two ties. The number of competitors who participated in the tournament was about sixty, among whom were also three Nisei on Takahashi's team.

The three Nisei who competed were Tai Akagi, a green belter and an RCAF member; Hiro Furuya, a yellow belter who is a surveyor for the federal government; and an 11-year-old yellow belter, Ken Fudemoto. The latter was responsible for defeating five persons in a row, resulting in his winning the junior championship.

Among those present at the tournament were Messrs. T. Udo and Y. Kimura, both whom represented the Japanese Embassy.

SAYS 300 JAPANESE STILL WITH VIETMINH FORCES

TOKYO. — A Japanese, who claims to have served seven years with Indochinese Communist forces, said here recently that there are about 300 Japanese still with Vietminh forces in that area.

He said he had been taken prisoner by the French and repatriated to Japan. He claimed to have been captured by the Indochinese Communists in 1945 and forced to serve in the army.

Tokyo-Vancouver Flight by Japan Air Lines Discussed

OTTAWA. — Trans-Pacific air service was inaugurated between Tokyo and San Francisco this week by Japan Air Lines. A service between Tokyo and Vancouver is now being negotiated.

Japan Air Lines commenced its twice-weekly trans-Pacific service Feb. 2, flying DC-6B aircraft over the Tokyo-Honolulu-San Francisco route.

The service to Vancouver is being discussed in Tokyo by representatives of the Canadian Embassy and Japanese Government airline officials.

A government spokesman in Ottawa said the negotiations are being conducted under terms laid down by the Japanese peace treaty and are thus more complex than normal air talks. Ottawa authorities are reported to have no information as to the state of the negotiations.

The Japanese Embassy in Ottawa indicated the service will be commenced soon after conclusion of present negotiations.

holds of the S.S. General Meigs. The crossing is uneventful; 12 days later, we set foot on the land of geishas and honey-buckets.

Coupled with the almost unbearable tropical heat of the summer of '46, the sight of ruins and havoc that greets the unaccustomed eye is miserable beyond description. Nevertheless, there's no alternative but to try and pick up the tangled threads of life, and yours truly is seen presently struggling for survival in the quaint city of Kyoto. In between hobnobbing with the cloak-and-dagger men of the American army, he manages to put in a few hours of book-learning at the local high.

Time passes fast when destitution is constantly nipping at one's heels, and '47, '48 and '49 seem but fleeting moments of instinctive survival.

An intolerable itch for travel, however, soon gets into yours truly, and the autumn of '50 takes him to the next stop: Tokyo. Ah, Tokyo — its bustling atmosphere, its dubious, unpredictable side-street establishments, its . . . its . . . (oops, better not go too far, eh?) A similar pattern of life is resumed, meanwhile, working at ATIS (Allied Translator and Interpreter Service) and snatching a couple of hours of study whenever possible, and yours truly shortly finds himself in possession of a Japanese high school diploma. How it was wrangled, under the circumstances, God only knows.

Partly out of curiosity, this boy decides he wants to take a crack at college life in Japan (as something to tell his grandchildren). By now, he seems to have gained a bit of confidence in the hodge podge of Japanese schooling. And so, through some devious means, April of '51 (the school year begins in April in Japan) finds yours truly a member of the square - capped - and - black - uniformed flock of scholars at Waseda: The campus slightly resembles McGill's.

A year and a half of monkeying around in the engineering lab, however, once again stirs up the wanderlust in yours truly, and one autumn day of '52, he saunters into one of the travel offices in Tokyo and books passage back to Canada. The weeks that follow are hectic — passport, exit visa, innoculations, currency conversions, letters, last-minute worries, and bitter good-byes.

Finally, on a bleak November morning, the ship carrying yours truly silently slips out of Yokohama harbour. In the crisp morning air, he takes one last look at the ragged island country which had been his home for more than six years.

Two weeks of endless expanse of water makes one appreciate the distance spanning the Pacific; that's one thing that cannot be experienced by flying. Day after day, there's nothing but cold, grey water to the farthest extent of one's vision — the horizon is but an obscure meeting of the murky sea and misty sky. It seems endless . . .

Then, land ahoy! Towards the bow in the dusking twilight of the 13th day, a lighthouse is blinking. Gradually, the shadowed contours of Vancouver Island are made out. Canada again! Oh, what a sensation!

Next morning, the ship's already berthed in Vancouver. The re-entry procedures are completed in due time, and yours truly takes a walk down Hastings. It's still hard to realize this is the old hometown — the people seem coldly indifferent, the streets unknowing and unconcerned. It's like being cast into a strange place, somewhere you've never been before. . . Hell, what did you expect — a reception band playing the National Anthem for you? Still, to think this is where you were born . . . odd. . .

A week later, yours truly nonchalantly climbs aboard an east-bound train — Toronto seems to be the most logical destination. Some of his relatives are there, most of his forgotten friends and . . .

AND SO, that brings us up to date. Having spent my second Christmas in Toronto, that irrepressible itch to move is starting to get its claws into me again, but I'd not whether I'll be able [illegible] anything about it for a while yet. Perhaps, age is beginning to take its [illegible] . . .

Crossroad To Somewhere

"You Ain't Lived . . ."

By WIMP HIROTO

Lemme tellya, folks, you ain't lived until you've worked for a newspaper. But on second thought, maybe it's me that ain't lived.

You run into so many gawdawful situations, experiences, stories and people that it makes one's head swim just trying to recall a few.

A favorite among newspapermen is the story about a bright young cub reporter, just out of college. His one dream in life was to get out on assignment and tackle a big story. One day, after countless routine weeks of slavery, his opportunity came.

A dam had broken in the northern portion of the state and a number of small communities located in the valley below were inundated. The call came to the City Editor's desk when the city room was empty . . . except for our blossoming newspaperman.

"Bonehead! I hate like hell to send you out on this story, but you're the only one I can send to get me the story," the City Editor boomed. (They all boom).

"Hire a plane from the airport and get up there as soon as possible. File your story by phone. I'll be waiting for your call because we go to press in exactly two hours and ten minutes."

Our young hero dashed out of the City Room before the City Ed could change his mind. Visions of "the story of the year" flashed through his mind as he enplaned to the scene of the disaster.

When he reached his destination, a check revealed he had but fifteen minutes to gather the pertinent information and call the city desk.

Once accomplished, he grabbed the nearest phone and frantically dialed his boss. He could see his by-line in 10 point bold face under the 72 point streamer headline. A perfect lead for his story was just aching to leave his lips.

The operator connected him with the city room.

"Hi, boss, I got the story," he cried excitedly, "God sat on the hilltop, overlooking this beautiful valley, in the dusk of evening as millions of gallons of water flooded what was once a peaceful little village and . . ."

"For God's sake, give me the info, the info," boomed the City, "we're three minutes to deadline."

"That's what I'm trying to do, boss, that's what I'm trying to do. Did you get my lead though? — God sat on the hill top overlooking . . ."

The poor guy never got a chance to file his story. He didn't even get to finish what he thought was the lead to end all leads. Because the City Ed cut him off with this ringing blast.

"Bonehead!" You'r[illegible] . . . Forget about th[illegible] and high[illegible] the hill top and interview that[illegible]"

Postscript on Mink

ONCE UPON a time there was a Very Nice Girl. She was just like any other average Girl Friday who works for a living. She lived — or tried to live — within her means, although at times it took quite a lot of juggling of finances and imagination unlimited when she decided to go on sprees.

She was sensible, and she worked hard at trying to live that kind of life. She set her feet firmly on the ground, and if her head sometimes went out of bounds, she gave it a quick slap, and put her nose back to the grindstone. Instead of the luxury of a car, she put up with the Montreal Tramway. Instead of annual trips to Europe or to Mexico, she settled for a couple of flying trips to New York or to a retreat up north where not even the moneyed could say "Look Miss, no trespassing!" to deprive her of a bit of still blue lake, with trees towering like dark, friendly shadows, and her fill of bright twinkling stars. She'd learned to think in terms of a "good cloth coat" instead of in terms of squirrel, beaver or Persian lamb. And as for mink, she'd never really seen one anyway, and was smart enough to know that no one gave them away for nothing. Through necessity, she was an ardent supporter of the SPCA professing sincerely that she would think twice before robbing upper-class rodents of their furry skins.

Now, a psychologist would have commended this Very Nice Girl's attitude as an example of sensible adjustment to conditions. But this girl wasn't particularly concerned with psychologists and their opinions. She was too busy keeping her nose to the grindstone during working hours, playing at her hobbies and enjoying her friends. If she lacked certain material things, she had friends and it was a happy case of "What's mine is yours and vice versa".

So when her Girl Friend won a mink coat, this Very Nice Girl was very sympathetic. A mink coat was like dreaming of Gregory Peck, Mel Ferrer, Anthony Eden or even the Duke of Edinburgh dropping in for a cup of tea. The Very Nice Girl was happy in her ignorance. And just to prove that a mere mink coat wouldn't come between them, she even wrote a public piece about her Girl Friend's sad, sad dilemma.

She went all out, wracking her brains to find ways and means of getting some use out of the Mink Coat before they dispensed with it. She was known to have said, "Never mind, we'll have some fun with it first. We'll keep it for a few days, just long enough to give a 'Mink Tea'. Just think of the possibilities! There are hundreds of girls who've never really come close to a Mink Coat. And we'd be doing ourselves and womankind in general a great service. . . providing them the opportunity to be able to drop naughty, interesting phrases like 'Just spent the afternoon trying on a mink coat. . . or 'I could have had a mink coat. . .'"

The scheme she worked out was not beyond the reach of average girls like herself. For a small fee of 50c a girl could have a good look at real Mink; for 75c she could run her fingers intimately and carelessly through soft, Minky Fur; for $1.00 she could wear it for ten whole minutes. $5.00 would provide a girl with a full-length portrait, whereas $25.00 (cheap in any Mink's language) would provide her with a life-time photograph in colour, with the proper decor for background — a thoroughbred Doberman on a leash if the subject were the athletic type, prefering her mink with slacks, or soft candlelight plus a man in evening clothes and the right sort of look in his eyes, if she yearned for mink flavoured with romance. And this Very Nice Girl pointed out that it wouldn't be easy to provide a man, but for $25.00 profit, she'd find one somewhere! And since this was going to benefit all women who aspired for the finer things in life, she promised her Girl Friend that she herself would provide the refreshments free!

But that was before this Very Nice Girl became intimate with Mink. Now she doesn't think like a Very Nice Girl should. She held the mink coat in her arms and blurted out incoherently, "O... Gosh! $7,500.00 worth of mink in my two hands!" She made mental calculations and whispered, "Do you know, this thing is equivalent to three years' salary for me, plus ten brand new typewriters." And when it glistened in its minky splendour on one of her living room chairs, she spoke as if in a trance, "Would you believe it . . all our household furniture, plus all the sentimental value attached to it . . . couldn't buy a Mink Coat!"

But it was the wearing of it that was fatal. She stood transfixed. Ecstasy, desire, pain. . . crossed her round little face. And then she whispered half to herself, "Even if I saved and [illegible] for 20 years, I'd never own such a coat! This one does things to me! . . . And even if I did manage to save enough money to buy this type of mink coat, in twenty years' time, it would never do for me then what it can do for me now!"

This Very Nice Girl should be happy. Her Girl Friend is paying her the highest compliment anyone will ever pay her — that of taking her advice and not keeping the Mink Coat. But this Very Nice Girl isn't so sure — now. At night she has no rest. She suffers from insomnia. When she starts counting sheep — for she has to get up every morning to go to work in her "nice cloth coat" — she sees furry little mink jumping into her lap only to slip out of her reach with diabolical minky grins.

▽公務でトロントに來るたびごとに大使は私達新聞關係者を招んではよく御馳走してくれ、わざわざ持參したものを、職務柄、自分も飲むわと瓶をあけて、それを廻してくれたりしたものだつた。

▽昨年の夏休みに在米大使館員の全員が大使のところへ御機嫌伺いに行つたそうだが、そのころから、大使の轉任の見通しがついていたとすれば、これは豫定のコースだつたともいえるわけである。

カナダという國（九）

カナダの連邦議會即ち政府は、むづかしく言えば、行政部の首位に立つ總督と女皇のカナダ樞密院（內閣が主要構成員で執行機關）立法部たる上院と下院、司法部を代表する裁判所の三つから成っている。

總督はカナダ首相の助言によって女皇が任命する。傳統的には五ヶ年の任期で女皇のカナダ樞密院（內閣）の助言によってのみ行動する。現在のマッセー總督は一九五二年二月に任命された人で、カナダ人として總督になった最初の人である。

女皇のカナダ樞密院は七十餘名の人々から成る。首相の助言によって總督が任命し、終身任期である。メンバーは主として現在及び前の閣員であるが、樞密院全体として會合するということはなく、その責務は、その時々の內閣が樞密院の執行委員という格で遂行する。

政府の立法部は上院と下院で、すべての立法をつかさどる。立法は上下兩院何れからでも創始できるが、金錢に關することだけは下院に提出されねばならない。如何なる立法も兩院を通過して總督の裁可を經なければ法律とはならない。

上院議員は首相の內申によって總督が任命し、終身任期である。合計百二名でクイベックとオンタリオ兩州から二十四名宛、ノヴァスコシアとニユーブランスウイック兩州は十名宛、西部四州は六名宛、ニユーファンランドは六名、プリンスエドワード島は四名となっている。

下院の議員數は二百六十二名で、公選し五ヶ年の任期。各州の割當は次の如くで、これは人口に比例して振り當てられるので、最初二四五名だったのが二五五名になり、更にニユーファンランドの參加によって二六二名となった。

オタワ地區の柔道大會に於て

ト市領事館は六月頃に開設

『交際に一苦勞』

井口大使は木村事務官を帶同自動車で日曜夜トロント着、日系新聞、市協代表および和歌山出身者約二十數名を夕食に招待した席上、次の如き談話を行つた。

▽ワシントンに轉任することで四日に世界旅行にでかけるサン・ロラン首相に會つてお別れの挨拶を述べたが、そのとき自分はカナダと米國の關係はサイミーズツウインと同樣で、切つても切れないもの、片方の双生見カナダと結ばれ、また今度は米國の双生見に迎えられて兩手に花ということは冥加につきると話して笑い合つた

東京、晩市間の空路開設交渉中

伊內閣敗れる

【ローマ發】組閣してから十一日目の先週末、イタリーのファンファニ內閣は議會における信任案採決で三〇三票對二六〇で敗れた。ためにイタリー政界は未曾有の不安狀態におかれ、この政黨危機の切拔けが行われない限り、總選擧は必至とみられている。

餘り期待はせぬ

【オタワ發】ピアソン外相は先週末の議會で一般國際情勢に關する演說を行つたがベルリンにおける四國外相會議によつていくらかの結果を得ることの望みは持つてもよいけれども、あまり大きな期待をかけるべきではないと次の如く語つた。

▽昨年以來、ソ連はわずかの讓歩または確言をなして國際情勢を幾分かやわらげたといえども、それによつてソ連リーダーたちが大きな國際的問題を解決しようとしているとみなすことは誤りである

▽現在の平和の望みと安定度が昨年よりはるかに大きくなつたというのならば、世界は力の弱い、疲れた者にとつて安住の地でないことを一時も忘れるべきでない。そうなつたというのは西部國家群が武力を强くしたからに他ならない

グゼンコ氏がテレビイで放送

【ワシントン發】カナダ駐任ソ連大使館のスパイ活動をあばいたイゴー・グゼンコ氏は先週末ワシントンに於るドリユー・ピアソン氏(著名な新聞人)とのテレヴイ・インタビューで、現駐米ソ連大使ザルビン氏を絕え警戒せよと述べた。ザルビン氏はスパイ事件當時カナダ大使だつた人である。ピアソン氏は『あなたは、とくに將來の原子力問題について交渉を進めるに際して、ザルビン大使がワシントンに駐任することは危險だと考えるか』と質問したのに對し、覆面したグゼンコー氏は『私は彼をワッチし、注意するようおすすめします』と語つた

メード・イン・ジャパンを今後つけること

Ohno Paces Alta. Pucksters To 1st Two Victories of Year

LETHBRIDGE. — The Lethbridge-McNally combined Junior "B" Beet Kings, the lone Japanese Canadian hockey team in southern Alberta, staged two consecutive victories last week to hit the winning side of the ledger for the first time in 1954. They had dropped a pair earlier in January.

Kings — Hoboes

On Jan. 27, the Beet Kings flushed the Hardieville Hoboes 5-1 in an exhibition tilt at the Lethbridge Civic Ice Centre as right-winger Kaz Ohno spearheaded the Nisei attack with a brace of tallies while singletons came from the sticks of Tom Asato, Stan Yip and Jackie Ohno.

The Beet Kings drew first blood in the opening stanza when Stan Yip picked up Tom Asato's passout from behind the net to drive a sizzling screen shot into the top righthand corner of the cage at the 5:15 mark. The Hoboes tied it up two minutes later when McGee picked up a loose puck at the blue line to slip a drive through goalie Roy Asato's pads. Kaz Ohno rounded out the scoring in the first period after taking a double relay from Mas Kurio and Kaz Hiraga to poke the puck into the right side of the net.

The Kings went two up at the 12-minute mark of the sandwich session when captain Jackie Ohno hit the hemp from 15 feet out after taking Asato's pass from the corner.

Kings — Butte United

On Jan. 29, paced again by Kaz Ohno's 7-goal outburst, the Beet Kings cut loose with a terrific scoring barrage to trounce the Picture Butte United Church sextet 18-3 at the local Civic Ice Centre.

The Beet Kings took the lead in the early minutes of the game and commanded a 5-2 lead after 20 minutes. The Kings continued to outplay the visitors as they hit the hemp for four more goals while Picture Butte counted once in the sandwich session. The final period saw the Beet Kings shake loose with a terrific barrage of scores as they pounded the rubber into the cage nine times.

All-JC Puck League

It is hoped to start an all-Nisei Hockey League with teams from Picture Butte, Raymond and Taber. — H. K.

HAM. BASKETBALL

Jan. 29 at the First United Church in Hamilton saw the fifth and sixth games of the season presented by the Hamilton Nisei Basketball League.

Dukes — Comets

In the opening game of the evening, the Dukes defeated the Comets by a handsome margin of 62-50, top scorers for the visitors being Bill Matsui with 21 points and Shin Fukumoto 19. Outstanding for the Comets were Frank Shimoda 16 and Junk Fukumoto 15.

Angels — Dukes

The second game saw the well-organized Angels edge out the hard-fighting Dukes in a close 47-44 struggle. Aki Watanabe and Ike Murase scored 18 and 19 respectively for the Angels, while high for the Dukes were once again Matsui with 20 and Fukumoto 12.

Phantoms Clinch Van. Trophy; Exhibition with Alta. Possible

VANCOUVER. — Indications are that there is a definite possibility that Vancouver will be hosting the highly-touted YBA All-Stars from Alberta in an exhibition basketball game on Feb. 26 or 27. The Alberta cagers are entering the YBA Basketball tournament in Spokane, Wash., and on their journey home, one of their stops will be Vancouver if a match can be arranged.

For Vancouver, an all-star squad will be selected from among the four Nisei-league teams, the coaching chores of whom will be handled by John Yamabe.

Phantoms — Varsity

The National Life Phantoms, scoring almost at will, literally clinched their acquisition of first place and the JCCA challenge trophy as they romped to an easy 59-37 victory over the Varsity squad.

It was a close checking affair with both teams roughing it up at times. Only in the first quarter were the students able to keep pace, being only two points behind at 9-7, but by half-time, the Insurance crew had widened the gap to 22-13.

After the breather, the campus boys assumed a zone defence, but the fastbreaking Phantoms outscored their disorganized victims 37-24. John Yamabe again paced the Phantoms with 20 points, while teammates S. Nagano and S. Tahara sank 11 each. Best for the losers were Min Sugimoto and Yosh Saito with 11 and 10 respectively.

Teens — Tad's

In the latter tilt of the evening, the much-improved Teeners managed to scrape through to a close 44-40 triumph over Tad's quintet. The opening quarter saw the Sporting Goods crew take a 12-8 lead, but by the half, the Teeners had narrowed the margin to 22-21.

In the third stanza, the Teen-Agers, potting baskets from all angles with amazing accuracy, took a commanding 39-31 lead, and the final quarter saw the Teeners just content with nursing their lead.

Lanky John Nakata playing his best game to date spearheaded the Teens with 15 points, while Ken Yada, scoring 7, presented a solid effort. Mits Tahara and Tad Kitagawa hooped 10 points apiece for the losers' best. — S. T.

Lethbridge Marks 1st Win; Taber Ousted from League

COALDALE. — The Lethbridge Junior JCCA's entry in the Southern Alberta YBA Basketball League copped its initial win of the season at Coaldale on Jan. 24 as they polished off the second-place Picture Butte quintet 56-51. Taber defaulted to the Raymond Busseis, giving coach Roy Kitagawa's Busseis their sixth straight victory in as many outings.

Lethbridge, winless in the previous five starts, cut loose from the opening whistle and piled up a 12-3 lead in the opening canto, then outscored their foes 12-10 in the second quarter to grab an 11-point bulge at the half.

The Lethbridge cagers continued to hold the upper hand in the red hot third stanza as they nudged Butte 21-20. Then Picture Butte hit a hot lick in the final quarter and took a one-point 51-50 lead with two minutes of play remaining, but their lead was short-lived as the Junior JCCA squad stepped on the gas for three quick baskets to run the final tally to 56-51.

League officials have ousted the Taber YBA club after failing to appear at two league games, making way for the new Lethbridge YBA club who will assume Taber's place in the league standing with one win in four tries. The new entry will be coached by yours truly, and consist of Kaz Hiraga, Mas Kurio, Spud Adachi, Akio Mori and Echiyo Ibuki, with hopes of landing the two starry forwards, Ted Oshiro and Min Koyata, from the now defunct Taber club. There is also a chance that George Oshiro and Tom Asato of the former Coaldale YBA club last year may join the folds of the new entry.

"Niseis" Drop Another To Magrath Lions

LETHBRIDGE. — Magrath Lions moved into a two-way second-place deadlock with St. Basils CYO's as they trounced the Alberta JCCA "Niseis" 42-41 here on Jan. 25th in the Lethbridge City Men's Basketball League.

The loss enabled St. Louis Furniture to tie the "Niseis" for fourth place in the eight-team loop.

Dream Triple of 1000 Bowled in Nisei Majors

What is it about Yamada's that seems to inspire their opponents to such lofty heights? Every time the high triple has been broken this season, they have been the unlucky victims.

This time, Bing Tanaka proved to be a one-man team as he led Takeda's to a 7-0 victory with spectacular scores of 293, 411, and 314 for an amazing total of 1,018. If memory serves correctly, only two others in the annals of Japanese Canadian bowlers have achieved that dream of bowling over 1,000.

Their acquisition of 7 points from Yamada's boosted Takeda's into 6th spot with 73 points. Federal Farms, with S. Sora 752, K. Kuroda 737(329), M. Mori 720 and M. Baba 718(313) pacing the team, took a 5-2 decision from Spadina and climbed into second place with 83 points, one more than Yamada's.

Fox Tailors took 5 from Menzies to stay in 4th spot with 80, while Ascot, with Joe Nishizaki hitting 850(315) and M. Endo 749(316), swept 7 points from Radio Vision to total 76 points and occupy 5th spot. Despite their loss, Spadina was able to increase its lead to 18 points with a 101 total. Other games were Alexander 7, Sora 0; Uyeda 7, Chas Hardy 0; Du-Rite 5, Manhattan 2; and Lewis Men's 5, Hot Rods 2. — E.N.

Toronto Cagers Conclude Regular Schedule; Rebels, Whiz Kids to Get Crack at Mustangs

TORONTO. — The TNBA League schedule was concluded last Friday night, with the Rebels and Whiz Kids given the chance to battle for a crack at the finals with Mustangs and the senior crown. Orphans and Ozarks will vie for the intermediate title.

Ozarks — Orphans

The opener last Friday pitted the two intermediate teams of the league together, the end of which saw the Ozarks emerge triumphant 47-43. It was the first defeat the Ozarks have dealt the Orphans officially in league play. And from all appearances, the battle for the intermediate crown should prove to be again a pretty keen one.

Half-time saw the Orphans commanding a 28-21 lead, but the determined Ozarks overtook their opponents with only 3½ minutes remaining and coasted on to win. Although lacking somewhat in technical ability, the Ozarks fully demonstrated their fighting spirit and lived up to their motto "Never say die."

Ozarks: K. Shigetomi 12, T. Sakamoto 11, T. Fujiwara 11.

Orphans: F. Fukusaka 10, T. Ogaki 8.

Afterhours — Rebels

In the second game of the evening, the Afterhours managed to stage a brilliant upset on the Rebels to gain a close 50-43 victory.

The first half ended with the Rebels gaining a slight edge 20-19, twelve of the Afterhours' 19 points being made by T. Yatabe. In the third quarter, however, the Rebs' shooting fell apart, and the Afterhours shot ahead 41-32 as the quarter ended. Parallel scoring prevailed in the final stanza. It was Afterhours' first win over the vets.

Afterhours: T. Yatabe 18, A. Furukawa 14, B. Adachi 9.

Rebels: P. Hirano 15, M. Fukumoto 12.

Mustangs — Whiz Kids

A real slaughter was enacted in the final game as the Mustangs went all out to massacre the Whiz Kids 91-50. The Mustangs sank 30 points during the first ten minutes, and were ahead 50-21 by half-time. In the third quarter, the Kids managed to hold their own, but they fell apart again in the stretch quarter. The Kids seemed a very tired lot when the whistle blew the finish.

Mustangs: H. Edamura 30, G. Shiozaki 16, D. Tanaka 15, G. Tanaka 10.

Whiz Kids: A. Fujiwara 20, S. Takata 9.

Ten-Pin Kegling

It seems as if it's anybody's race in the Toronto Nisei Ten-Pin loop again as no more than three points separate the nine top teams with just two weeks remaining in the second series. The two top teams qualify for playoff berths, and the battle's on.

Spaniels, Setters and Pointers currently lead the pack with 20 points apiece, trailing close on whose heels are Scotties, Gophers, Greenhorns, Hurricanes, Atoms and Tootsies.

High scores of the last session were M. Idenouye 584(210), S. Miike 518(183), R. Tanishi 515 (188), T. Idenouye 504(192). High for the ladies was K. Okada with 453(171).

Seven New Members Join Ranks of Lakehead Keiro-Kai at Enjoyable New Year Get-Together

FORT WILLIAM, Ont. — Approximately 200 persons attended and enjoyed to the fullest the Annual Lakehead Nisei Club's Keiro-Kai and New Year's get-together party held at the Italian Hall in Fort William.

Activities began with a Keiro-Kai ceremony during which all the Lakehead Japanese residents 65 years of age and over were honoured. The new members of the Keiro-Kai are Mrs. Kika Tateishi, Mr. Kosaburo Matsuo, Mr. Heishiro Miwa, Mr. Tasoji Funakoshi, Mr. Shigeo Tabe, Mr. Gisaburo Horiguchi and Mr. Ishinosuke Ichikawa.

After a brief sketch of each of their personal histories by chairman Fred Nishikawa, a presentation was made to each new member. Mr. Ichikawa replied on behalf of the new members and thanked all concerned for the presentation.

Club president Joe Ebata then gave his official speech of welcome and expressed the hope that everyone would have a most enjoyable time.

The entertainment programme which followed the dining and drinking session was thoroughly enjoyed by all and was highlighted by the several "odori" performances with a series of skits, dances, solos and movies filling in and rounding out a near-perfect program. Dancing (which was awaited by all the younger folk) concluded the pleasurable day.

The programme was in the charge of Sab Arinobu who was most capably assisted by Mrs. Keiko Sunohara and a host of others, and the Club would like to extend its sincerest thanks to see in such a successful manner everyone who helped put this day [illegible]. —H. K.
